

We have good reasons for claiming your patronage. Best quality Groceries at a big saving.

Fresh Country Eggs, dozen ..... 23c
Salt Pork, per pound ..... 12c
Fat Spring Chickens, pound ..... 20c
$1.00 bottles Duffy Malt Whiskey ..... 85c
Small New Potatoes, peck ..... 10c
Swift Pride Soap, 7 for ..... 25c
Old Rye Whiskey, gallon ..... $2.00
Large Juicy Lemons, dozen ..... 24c
Large New Irish Potatoes, peck ..... 18c
Cream Cheese, per pound ..... 18c
Try our 40c Green or Mixed Tea for cold tea. It's regular 60c kind.
Extra Large Fat Mackerel, 7 for ..... 25c
Old Virginia Herring Roe, in 2-lb. cans ..... 10c
Best Quality Oats, per bushel ..... 55c
Smoked California Hams, per lb. ..... 30c
Elgin Butter, per pound ..... 30c
Early June Peas, 3 cans for ..... 25c
3 Large Cans Pie Peaches, for ..... 25c
Good Ground Coffee, lb. ..... 10c
Extra Fine Prunes, per lb. ..... 5c
2 cans Tomatoes for soup ..... 5c
Best City Meal, 23c peck; or, per bushel ..... 85c
Chopped Beef, per can ..... 4c
Potted Ham or Tongue, per can ..... 4c
Va. Pride Coffee, per lb. ..... 15c
California Evaporated Peaches ..... 8c
$1.00 bottles Old Fulcher Whiskey, 75c

S. ULLMAN'S SON,

TWO—STORES—TWO
1820-22 E. Main. 506 E. Marshall.
Two Stores—Phones at Each.

CHARGED WITH ROBBERY.

New York Salesman Held in Thousand Dollars Bail for Appearance To-day.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Harrisburg, Pa., August 8.—P. E. Eydine, a traveling representative of a jewelry firm of New York, was arrested here last night charged with taking $111 in cash from the person of Prof. Allan De Muelier, a dancing master, who has been here for some few weeks. Mueller declares that he lost the sum and was dragged before the robbery occurred. Eydine disclaims any knowledge of the loss.
The salesman was locked up, but later released on $1,000 bail. The hearing will be held in the morning.

Prof. Mueller came here from the University of Virginia, and prior to that time had taught dancing at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, and in Washington, in the latter place boasting of having taught the terpsichorean art to Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the ex-President.

Rain-Storm in Suffolk.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Suffolk, Va., August 8.—A damaging rainstorm, the severity of which resembled a cloudburst. One and forty-five hundredths inches of water fell within less than half an hour, flooding streets and swelling small streams to overflowing.

The storm was local. No rain fell in portions of Northampton county, and the fall in tide of Wight was light.

W. D. Zinn, of Philippi, W. Va., came to Richmond last evening, and will go to Petersburg to-day. In the latter city he will take the place of Commissioner of Agriculture George W. Kolner in an address before the State Farmers' Institute.

In a week or two Mr. Zinn will return to Virginia to make a series of addresses in the traveling farmers' institute work. He has now appeared on several such occasions, always to the delight of his audiences and to the pleasure of the officials in charge of the work. The latter regard him as one of the most successful lecturers on agricultural subjects in the United States.

The best part about Mr. Zinn's trips to Virginia is that he has been so favorably impressed with the resources and possibilities of this State that he has determined to invest in lands and do farming here on a large scale. He is now looking for a favorable location. He regards Virginia lands as wonderfully cheap, considering their possibilities, nearness to markets and other obvious advantages.

J. J. Owen, the assistant to Commissioner Kolner, has been making many efforts to get Mr. Zinn for his coming institute series, and has been successful.

Virginia at the Hotels.

Jefferson—W. G. Dunnington, Farmville; L. Borchers.
Davis—Isaac Higgs, Newport News; John A. Seal, Newport News; Lee Hardin, Dillwyn; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Alden, Staunton; Mr. and Mrs. James Lovejoy, Norfolk; H. M. Lickous, Louisa Creek.

Richmond—T. S. Settle, Flint Hill; Thomas H. Owens, Clarksville; R. S. Gray, Virginia; L. Carrier, Blacksburg; Berkeley D. Adams, Red Oak; Charles M. Boswell, Chase City; J. D. Tucker, South Boston.

Farmville—C. E. Cagan, Charlottesville; R. H. Rowland, Virginia.

Murphy's—N. C. Burruss, Norfolk; T. H. Martin, Gloucester; George F. Kerr, Essex county; J. Walden Smith, M. D. Cumberland; W. R. Wigglesworth, Blackstone; Joseph H. Saunders, Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harding, Woodford; D. L. Walker, Virginia; J. L. Carter, Chatham.

Lexington—C. E. Mathews, Virginia; J. D. Jaspot, Lynchburg; David Stuart, Cumberland; H. J. Wright, Norfolk; M. W. Worden, Salem; L. E. Hubbard, Farmville; J. W. Chapman, Fort Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Flanagan, Louisa; V. C. Verlander, Portsmouth; E. E. Crook, Arvonia; Abney Robinson, West Point; W. R. Broadbent, West Point; A. T. Morrison, Prince Edward county; R. J. Glasco, Aylett.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

MAN'S DEAD BODY FOUND IN HOUSE

Sylvester Lyman, Native of Canada, Dies Near Petersburg.

HARNETT CASE CONTINUED

Large Attendance Expected at the State Farmers Institute.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., August 8.

Sylvester Lyman, whose body was found yesterday in his bed in the residence of A. W. Whitehurst, in Chesterfield county, near this city, of which he was temporarily the caretaker, was a native of Canada, and was sixty-one years old. He had been living in and near Petersburg for about fifteen years, and at one time was engaged in selling medicines. Latterly he had lived much to himself, and his health had been bad for several years.

He was last seen alive a week ago to-day, when he told a neighbor he was feeling sick. But nothing was thought of his absence from his home for several days. The condition of the body was such as to necessitate immediate burial, no inquest being deemed necessary. Mr. Lyman is survived by relatives living in the North and by nephews and nieces in Petersburg.

Continued for Ten Days.

The case of young Timothy Harnett, eighteen years old, charged with assaulting and beating his mother at her home, on Bollingbrook Street yesterday, was called in the Police Court this morning and continued for ten days.

Harnett was very severely injured, his left arm being broken and other injuries being inflicted. Young Harnett concealed himself for some time before his arrest in the hold of a houseboat in the Appomattox.

Delegates to the State Farmers' Institute, which will open its seventh annual session in the Academy of Music in this city to-morrow, are beginning to arrive. A large attendance is expected. Particularly of the farm-ers of the Southside section, many of the topics to be discussed being of especial interest to farming in the Southside.

Church Reception.

The Rev. Alonzo R. Love and Mrs. Love to-night opened their home in West Washington Street in a reception extended to the members of the West End Baptist Church, of which Mr. Love is the pastor. The occasion was successful.

Richmond—T. S. Settle, Flint Hill; Thomas H. Owens, Clarksville; R. S. Gray, Virginia; L. Carrier, Blacksburg; Berkeley D. Adams, Red Oak; Charles M. Boswell, Chase City; J. D. Tucker, South Boston.

Farmville—C. E. Cagan, Charlottesville; R. H. Rowland, Virginia.

Murphy's—N. C. Burruss, Norfolk; T. H. Martin, Gloucester; George F. Kerr, Essex county; J. Walden Smith, M. D. Cumberland; W. R. Wigglesworth, Blackstone; Joseph H. Saunders, Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Harding, Woodford; D. L. Walker, Virginia; J. L. Carter, Chatham.

Lexington—C. E. Mathews, Virginia; J. D. Jaspot, Lynchburg; David Stuart, Cumberland; H. J. Wright, Norfolk; M. W. Worden, Salem; L. E. Hubbard, Farmville; J. W. Chapman, Fort Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Flanagan, Louisa; V. C. Verlander, Portsmouth; E. E. Crook, Arvonia; Abney Robinson, West Point; W. R. Broadbent, West Point; A. T. Morrison, Prince Edward county; R. J. Glasco, Aylett.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

T. ASHBY WICKHAM.

My appeal is to all Democratic voters and not to any part thereof.

Very respectfully,

Northern Pacific NEW BOOKS AT SERVICE STATE LIBRARY

Valuable Works of Reference and Southern History Added to Collection.

Will you sit down to a meal in our Dining Cars? You will be served with "home-grown" products: Great Big Baked Potatoes; the finest fresh fruits in season; ice cream from the N. P. Dairy and Poultry Farm; bread, cakes, pies, and other delicacies; and a full service of waiters and waitresses.

Philadelphia Office: 711 Chestnut St., P. W. Mumhill, Dist. Pass. Agent.

was one of especial social interest and enjoyment.

To-morrow afternoon at 1 o'clock, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Love, Mrs. Fannie M. Taylor, of Louisville, Ky., the mother of Mrs. Love, will be united in marriage to John D. Burgess, a prominent business man of Cincinnati.

General News Notes.

Mrs. Charles M. Hatcher was removed from St. P. W. Mumhill, Dist. Pass. Agent.

The condition of Mayor William M. Jones is reported to be gradually improving, though he is unable as yet to leave his bed.

The houses in Petersburg are being remodeled with figures on bright ivory plates. On some of the streets this numbering is greatly needed.

The status of the Tartie and anti-Tartie factions in the Harrison Street Colored Baptist Church remains unchanged since Judge West's recent decision referring the matter to the control of the members of the church, and hold a business meeting for the election of officers. Meanwhile, under Judge West's decision, Eli Tartie is not pastor of the church, but is only permitted to act as pulpit supply.

The August term of the Circuit Court of Chesterfield county was opened to-day. The most important case on the Commonwealth's docket is that of T. C. Osborne, indicted for criminal assault of a girl named Burbrick, living near this city.

Osborne was to have been tried at the last term, but the case was ready and an officer went to bring him from his cell. It was discovered that he had attempted to commit suicide, and the trial had to be postponed in consequence.

Captain N. T. Patterson, president of the Common Council, yesterday received a telegram announcing the death in West Virginia of his sister, Mrs. Sallie J. Duffy.

Summer vacations of one week are now being allowed the police officers, two being permitted to go off duty at a time. They are taken alphabetically.

Captain Hancock, of the Phillips Line of river steamers, has resigned his position as captain of the Aurora to accept a position with the Dominion Line in Richmond, with which he was formerly connected.

The Misses Emma and Ella Harville, well known here, are entertaining a number of Petersburg friends at a party for the month at their home on the Alleghany Mountain.

Among those who left this morning to attend were: Miss Annie Jordan, Hattie Minton, Rosalie and Hazel Dean, Mary E. Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. James D. McKenney and several others.

WILL MEET AT OCEAN VIEW.

Association of Virginia Clerks of the Court Convened Wednesday.

Norfolk. Va., August 8.—The first annual convention of the Association of Virginia Clerks of the Court will be held in Norfolk, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. Several prominent members of the Virginia judiciary, as well as United States Senators Martin and Swann, are expected to attend. The object of the association is to discuss civil procedure on the part of the clerks of the court throughout Virginia.

On the first day of the convention addresses will be made by Robert G. Holt on "Criminal Procedure," H. H. Holt on "Probate of Wills," and Judge W. F. Rhea, of the State Corporation Commission, on the "Relation of Bench and Clerks," and Judge Thomas F. Willcox on the "Relation of the Bar and the Clerks."

Thursday will be devoted to a sight-seeing trip to the Norfolk Navy Yard and through the Norfolk harbor by special steamer. That afternoon the convention will reconvene for the election of officers. The convention will close Thursday night with a banquet at the Ocean View.

The officers of the association are A. S. Johnson, president; James V. Trehy, first vice-president; Walter E. E. Crook, second vice-president; H. Goss, third vice-president; H. H. Holt, secretary and treasurer.

Executive committee—A. S. Johnson, R. H. Holt, Alvin H. Martin, Robert G. Gilliam, D. G. Smith, T. H. Geddy and Samuel P. Waddill.

DROWNED AT OCEAN VIEW

Richmond Boy Loses Grip on Boat and Attempting to Swim out to the Boat, and Succeeding, except that he missed his hold thereon when reaching it and exhausted by the swim, Wm. J. Day, aged nineteen years, of Richmond, was drowned yesterday morning at Ocean View.

Young Day was a guest at the Carroll Cottage at the beach, where he was spending a week, and was one of a party with Miss Mary Carroll and other girls who were swimming out to the boat, which was anchored in about eight feet of water. Young Day had dived off the boat and was returning to the surface, when he missed his hold on the boat, and was unable to get back. He was swept under the water. He did not come to the surface again, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

W. D. Knott, of Richmond, wanted to see a baseball game yesterday afternoon, so he stepped over to Petersburg. It is twenty-two miles by the turnpike, and he walked it in four hours and fifty-four minutes. He got there in time to see the game, and came back later by the electric line. Mr. Knott thinks the Blues should have no trouble on the postponed practice of the Orioles. But then he is an experienced walker. In Frederickburg, so he stopped over there. It is sixty-one miles, and was covered in less than eighteen hours, without allowing for stops.

The following books have recently been added to the Virginia State Library, which is rapidly becoming one of the most valuable collections of Southern history and literature in the country:

E. A. Alderman and others, library of Southern literature; fifteen volumes. C. H. Ambler, Sectionalism in Virginia, 1776-1861.

William Archer, Through Afro-America.

P. A. Bruce, Institutional History of Virginia.

F. M. Colby, ed., New International Year Book for 1909.

John R. Commons, ed., Documentary History of American Industrial Society.

Carnegie Hero Fund Commission, publication.

J. B. Cotton, Maryland Calendar of Wills.

George Cox, a grammar of Esperanto.

J. Debar, Prohibition.

G. C. Kingston, History of the Confederate War.

E. C. Elliott, State School Systems.

R. D. Evans, An Admirable Log.

L. H. Field, Police Administration.

M. Phrelog, Exodus, Moses and the Decalogue Legislation.

S. Porter, Irrigation of Orchards.

J. Hamilton, The Detronement of the City of Rome.

Mrs. W. E. Hatcher, Sneads of Fluvanna.

C. G. Herbermann, Catholic Encyclopedia.

William H. Hodges, Carl Wimar.

Burton Holmes, Travelogues, vols. 11, 12 and supplement.

John E. Massey, Autobiography.

In Memoriam Bronson Howard.

O. F. Morton, A History of Pendleton County, W. Va.

A. Motteu, Esperanto-English Dictionary.

National Tax Association, Conference, 1907-9.

W. Neale, and E. Hancock, The Be-trayal.

J. C. O'Connor, and C. F. Hayes, English-Esperanto Dictionary.

W. H. Pierce, Batchelder, Batcheller Genealogy.

J. E. D. Shipp, Giant Days.

M. Silber, Jewish Achievement.

S. Spargo, Carl Marx.

W. B. Stevens, ed., St. Louis: 100 Years in a Week.

W. B. Stevens, Addresses, Messages and Proclamations.

M. V. Terhune, Marion Harland's Autobiography.

G. A. Wauchop, The Writers of South Carolina.

J. F. Wise, Genealogical Chart, J. S. Wise and J. B. Douglas.

J. F. Wise, Genealogical Chart of Beverly Family.

R. Yates, Michael Yates and His Descendants.

FIVE YOUTHS ARRESTED.

Charged With Attempting to Make Assault on Eighteen-Year-Old Girl.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Lynchburg, Va., August 8.—Raymond Chenault, Ollie Fralin, Henry Carmichael, Claude Carmichael and Arthur Latham, all white boys, were charged to-day on the charge of having attempted to criminally assault Flossie Murray, an eighteen-year-old girl, Sunday afternoon near Miles Park.

The boys are charged with enticing the girl into a stable, where force is alleged, but the entrance of a negro stableman prevented the assault. They were bailed this afternoon in bonds of $1,000 for their appearance for preliminary trial Friday.

AMUSEMENTS.

Bijou's Real Winner.

With one of the best shows it has run during the summer, the Bijou yesterday played to about the best business of its season. For three hours the patronage was nothing short of phenomenal.

Ziska and Saunders have a magic and sleight-of-hand act, with burlesque thrown in, and the audience receives it with enthusiasm. The Salade Co. possesses an excellent voice, which adds materially to the act.

The Black and Tan put over a band and dancing exhibition that will draw their banjo work is artistic and entertaining.